

Objectives of the training

The Transpersonal MOSAIC module can be done independently of the other modules. It aims to understand the neurophysiological basis of altered consciousness experiences, non-dual states, egoless states, consciousness, emptiness, and then to experience these states for personal development but also to integrate them into therapeutic practice. This module is an initiatory journey of questioning beliefs in order to open up to greater than oneself, to open up to Unity in order to enlarge the vision of the World, of oneself and to integrate it into daily life.
